

Missing and Exploited Children
Chief Executive Officer Seminar (CEO)

The CEO course is designed for Chiefs of Police, Sheriffs, and 9-1-1 Communications Center Managers and Directors.

Please print or type all information and fax this form to 703-274-2111. We will acknowledge your request via return fax within two weeks.

Attendance is extremely limited and sessions fill up quickly.

Six to eight weeks before your scheduled training you will be sent registration and reservation instructions.

If you need additional information please contact Laura Childers, NCMEC Training Coordinator at, 703-837-6348 or lchilders@ncmec.org.

Title/Name _____

Department _____

NCIC ORI _____

Street Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____

E-mail _____

■ Indicate your first and second choice of training dates.

First Choice _____

Second Choice _____

Missing and Exploited Children Chief Executive Officer Seminar (CEO)

Program Highlights

The following subject matter will be addressed in the course:

Community Self Assessment

Developing a Strategy to Missing and Exploited Children

Media Issues and Use

Missing Children: Nature of the Problem

Planning a Strategy

Policies and Practices for Chiefs of Police, Sheriffs, and 9-1-1

Communications Center Managers and Directors

Training and Resources

Victim Impact

Costs

Training, training materials, airfare, and single-occupancy lodging costs are covered while attending class. Continental breakfasts and buffet lunches are provided for the days of training.

The program is typically delivered Sunday and Monday at NCMEC's JRLETC in Alexandria, Virginia.

Requirements

There are limited spaces available at these sought-after courses. 9-1-1 Communication Center Managers and Directors applying for the CEO Course who possess the organizational authority to develop and adopt policies and best practices for handling incidents of missing and abducted children will be given first consideration. Other individuals who can have significant influence on policies and practices within the 9-1-1 community will be considered on a space available basis.

Contact

For questions or registration information please contact the NCMEC Training Division at 703-837-6348 or via E-mail at lchilders@ncmec.org.

Course Schedule (CEO)

June 8-9, 2008

August 10-11, 2008

September 7-8, 2008

September 21-22, 2008

November 9-10, 2008

January 25-26, 2009

February 8-9, 2009

March 15-16, 2009